REMEMBER THE VALLEY

We won't pretend that flood drills will go down in history or that memories of a sock hop on fifties day will be immortal. We won't say that those remembrances of the junior-senior prom will not fade. None of these events were earth-shaking; none changed the course of world events. But they constituted, as you've heard people say a million times, "the best years of your life."

MSHS OFFERS

These years are happy years, free of adult responsibilities but full of opportunity to participate, to learn, and to enjoy.

Someday you may drag an antique 1975 ORIAN out of the attic to laugh hysterically at the fashions of the day or to conjure up your own brand of nostalgia.

THE MAN IN THE GLASS

Anonymous

When you get what you want in your struggle for self
And the world makes you king for a day,
Just go to the mirror and look at yourself
And see what that man has to say.

For it isn't your mother or father or wife
Whose judgment upon you must pass,
The fellow whose verdict counts most in your life
Is the one staring back from the glass.

You may be like Jack Horner and chisel a plum
And think you're a wonderful guy,
But the man in the glass says you're only a bum
If you can't look him straight in the eye.

He's the fellow to please — never mind all the rest
For he's with you clear to the end,
And you've passed your most dangerous, difficult test
If the man in the glass is your friend.

You may fool the whole world down the pathway of years
And get pats on the back as you pass,
But your final reward will be heartache and tears
If you've cheated the man in the glass.

STUDENT LIFE

Jim Luce, Sue Snediker, and Greg O'Brian were representatives to Student Council workshops.

Orian staff members who attended journalism workshop were Sarah Hoy, Cathy Wesel, and Laura Cooper.

Varsity cheerleaders Wendy Brown, Jody Dimit, Mary Weber, and Debbie Merrow attended a cheerleading workshop in Michigan.

STUDENTS FIND ACTION

"Original" members Barb Bond, Martin Prince, Carrie Mozena, and Mark Cooper attended journalism workshop in Athens.

Summer Seminars provided the opportunity for several students to experience new ideas in different environments. The varsity cheerleaders attended an informative seminar in Michigan, learning many new techniques. Mr. Knox and Mr. Schwepe drilled the band members many long hours on the practice field at Camp Lancaster, providing the background for their marching form. Boys' and Girls' State provided the opportunity for six Marietta students, Greg O'Brian, Mike Moening, Rod Strahler, Peggy Martin, Kelly Bryant, and Kim Tullius, to learn more about the way state government functions. Students from all over the state participated in the six-day event, held in Columbus. Student Council members participated in a number of workshops held around the state. Orian and Original Staff members learned numerous journalistic tricks in a six-day workshop held at Ohio University in Athens. Offering their skill and experience at the workshop were journalism advisors from as far away as Georgia.

Mike Moening, Peggy Martin, Greg O'Brian, and Kim Tullius attended Boys' and Girls' State.

BENGALS TALLY

An impressive 7-3 record rounded out a winning season for the enthusiastic MHS varsity football team. Spirit of the community, school and team hit a high point of fifteen years as the Tigers won their first three games against Athens, Parkersburg South, and Bellair. Excitement rose and the next week was proclaimed "Beat P-Burg Week." With the tension of an old rivalry at hand the Tiger machine got "psyched" for a victory, but went down to their first seasonal defeat to the Big Reds of Parkersburg. However, the Tigers recovered for the next week as, newcomers to the C.O.L., Grove City took a sound homecoming thrashing from Coach Hahn's workhorses. As justice would have it, Marietta's homecoming was ruined as the Zanesville Blue Devils poked holes in the Tiger defense and came out on the winning end of a 7-6 game. The next week spelled trouble again, when the number two ranked Golden Bears of Upper Arlington left Marietta's offense out in the cold. During the second half though, the Bengal defense warmed up and held the Columbus team to a negative ten yards. The last three games of the season meant victory, victory, victory, as the Tigers trounced Newark's Wildcat team in an away game; then came back to Don Drum Field to kick the Chillicothe Cavaliers off the turf. The Grand Finale of the season was a 10-7 victory against Lancaster. The win was the first for our TIGERS on the Gales field in twenty years.

The first two games for the Junior Varsity ended in defeat. In their away contest against the Little Reds the Bengals racked up fifty yards in penalties and left the field on the short side of a 28-22 score. After losing 32-6 to Parkersburg South, the J.V.'s came home for two consecutive victories, one against Warren and one against Cambridge, and a tie with Lancaster before leaving town for a rumble with the Little Devils from Zansville. During this encounter a third quarter 7-6 deficit ended in a 24-7 Tiger win as LHAN WEPPLER kicked a 47 yard punt to highlight a Tiger rally. The rest of the season was downhill, however, as Upper Arlington and Newark rolled to victory at the expense of the Junior Tigers.

TIGERS

Besides their duties as spirit leaders, the cheerleaders earned recognition in other ways. For example, since they needed new uniforms they decided to throw themselves at the mercy of their friends visiting the "dilly dunker" at the Washington County Fair in order to raise some money. Also, they entertained at pep assemblies with both planned and impromptu skits.

HOME-COMING PROVIDES WEEK OF ACTIVITIES

Seniors captured the float competition with their float, "Burn the Devils."

Wes Nida and Greg Wagner hammed it up on "Fifty's Day."

Mrs. Burns and Carrie Mozena prepared the Senior car for the parade.

Homecoming provided a whole week of competitive activities. Competition began on Monday, when the classes began selling spirit links. Even though they were conducting a bake sale in the gym lobby, the Juniors still found time to buy more spirit links than any other class. Tuesday, students dressed up for "Fifties' Day." In this competition, the Seniors captured the award for the best dressed class. Wednesday, the classes, as well as the teachers, competed in decorating the halls. Once again, the Juniors carried away the award. Thursday provided the opportunity for twenty-five students to compete in the pie eating contest in the auditorium. After the pie eating contest, the three classes went out to the parking lot and decorated one car per class. The Sophomores walked off with this award. The culmination of Spirit Week was on Friday: Juniors won the over-all spirit award at the pep assembly, the Seniors won the float competition, and Connie Smith became the 1974 Homecoming Queen. The only disappointment of the week came when the Tigers suffered a stunning 7-6 defeat at the hands of the Zanesville Blue Devils.

Connie Smith receives the traditional kiss.

Queen candidates were Connie Smith, Lennie Holland, Terry Clayton, Cherie Banks, and Jody Dimit.

CATHY WESEL was high scorer for Girls' Track with a total of 73 points.

The Girls' Track Team accumulated over 461½ points this season to conquer 11 of 13 opponents. Only Parkersburg and Caldwell overpowered the Tigerettes. Helping the team obtain its high number of points were BRENDA WILSON and JEAN GIVEN with 70½ and 56¾ points respectively. After the regular season, the Two Rivers Athletic Conference named BETH FINN, CATHY WESEL, BRENDA WILSON, and CHRISTY ANDERSON to the all-conference team. Also, three of these girls, CATHY WESEL, CHRISTY ANDERSON, and BRENDA WILSON, performed well enough to make the all-state team. During the district meet at Rio Grande, Marietta placed third among twelve triple A teams.

GIRLS' TRACK ACHIEVES 11-2 RECORD

BRENDA WILSON not only contributed 70¼ points to the team's record, but also remained undefeated in the shot-put.

BONNIE CRAGO and CINDY DIGNAZIO contributed to team efforts in the 880 relay.

COACH ANNASENZ'S FINAL SEASON PROVES SUCCESSFUL

Mike West ran one leg of the unbeaten mile-relay team.

High scorer Greg Wagner compiled 264 points and received the Most Valuable Player in Track award.

Although saddened when they learned that Coach Annasenz planned to retire at the end of the year, tracksters enjoyed a profitable season, recording 6 wins and 7 losses. Highlighting the season, high scorer Greg Wagner compiled 264 points, Joe Sarver set a new school record in the two-mile run with a 9:55.3. Dave Lowe ran the 800 yard run in 1:57.1 for a new high, and the mile relay team of Dave Lowe, Chris McDaniel, Mike West, and Greg Wagner set a new school high with a 3:27.5. Overall, the track team once again performed admirably, making Coach Annasenz's final season a successful one.

Chris McDaniel, another member of the mile-relay team, outdistanced two Bellaire runners in the 100-yard dash.

WRESTLERS HAVE UNEVENTFUL SEASON

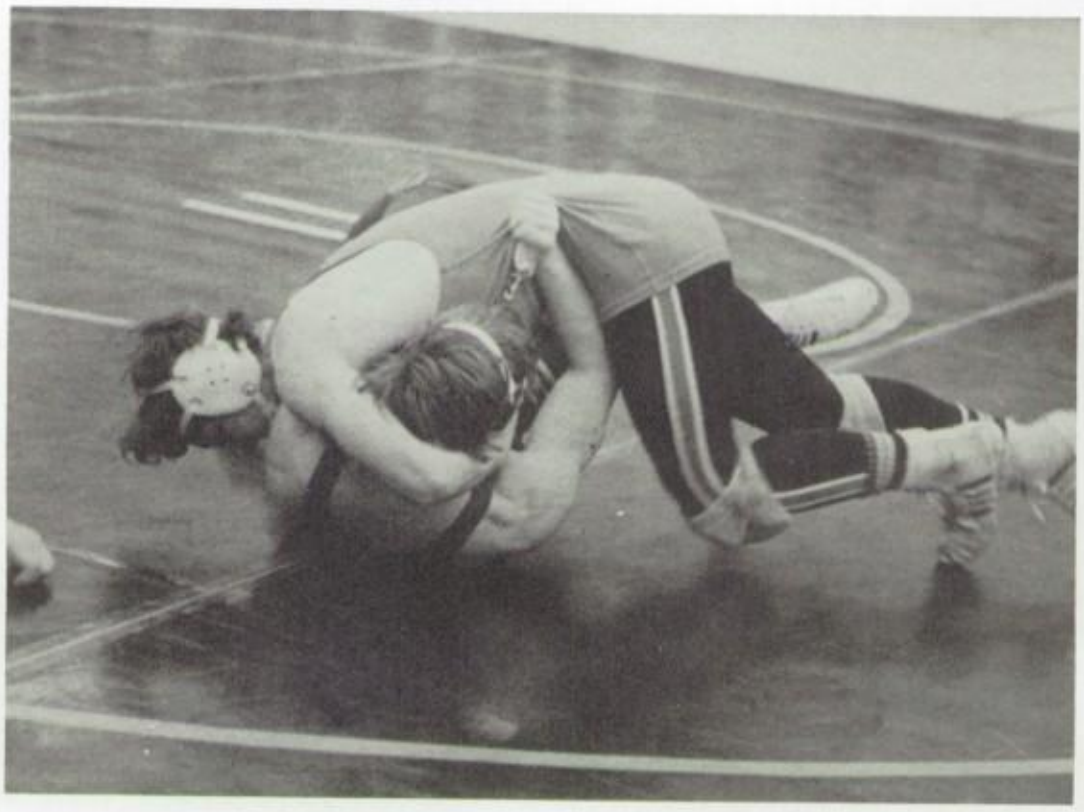
Even though the Marietta wrestler is losing, the team had four double winners at Athens: TIM WILLIAMS, TIM WIBLIN, KEN ABBOTT, RUSS PICKERING.



LHAN WEPPLER won second place in the Quaker Invitational.

While the team received the limelight, manager JOHN GREENE assisted the team behind the scenes.

The Marietta wrestlers achieved a record of ten wins, ten losses, and one tie. Highlighting the season was the 35-28 victory over Warren, a match in which TIM WILLIAMS, TIM WIBLIN, BILL TAYLOR, JEFF SUMMERS, RUSS PICKERING, and KEN ABBOTT scored victories over opponents. Another highpoint occurred when JEFF SUMMERS was voted outstanding wrestler in the Quaker Invitational. In this match he defeated last year's district champion from New Philadelphia by a 7-4 overtime decision. Perhaps the low point of the season came against Parkersburg as Marietta forfeited three weight classes in losing 42-14.

Sophomore WANA RINARD outruns a Warren defender enroute to the basket.

Coach BARBARA HARTONG offers some sideline instructions to her Tigerettes.

Tiger Girls' Basketball chalked up the best season in their three year existence, compiling a 11-2 record. After winning their first three games, the Tigerettes dropped a decision to Parkersburg Catholic, then went on to win their final six games, including a big victory against Parkersburg Catholic, to win a share of the Three Rivers Athletic Conference crown. In the T.R.A.C. tournament Marietta beat Belpre and Parkersburg before bowing out to champion Parkersburg Catholic. The Junior Varsity didn't have as much success, finishing with a 2-9 record.

Tigerettes NANCY GREENLESS (42) and BRENDA WILSON (44) put on pressure defense.

JUNIOR CLASS PRESENTS TALENTS AND TRICKS OF '76

Tom Hushion, Tammy Moore, and Cheryl Valentine performed "Roads of Yesterday," written by Tammy Moore.

Master of Ceremonies Bill Schilling enlivened the show with his magic tricks.

Dave Pekach shocked the audience as the exhibitionist.

Advised by Mr. William Schwepe, Miss Paula Hess, and Mr. Ernest Gath, the annual Junior Class Talent Show combined the talents of nearly 100 class members. Co-directors Kim Broedel and Emily Gilde and stage manager Pat McKitrick headed the production, entitled "The Talents and Tricks of '76." Acts ranging from Betsy Frederick's "Highland Fling" to Kim Broedel's and Jennifer Zoerkler's piano duet "He" to "Dueling Banjos," a baton duet by Susan Love and Annette Nicholson composed the Talent Show. Culminating the show, "Its Not Where You Start, Its Where You Finish," a selection from the Broadway musical, "SeeSaw," involved the whole cast.

Junior Varsity crew members were (Row 1) Coxswain Hannah Putnam, Tony Blair. (Row 2) John Laing, Dan Young, Bill Greenlees, Jay Simmons, Dave Goettge, Kelvin Abbott, Jon Harris, and Dave Ash.

Although the Varsity Crew achieved an unimpressive record of 8-14, they gave some excellent crews a close race. They came in third against some of the highest-ranked crews in the nation during the Cherry Blossom Regatta in Washington, D.C. In this race, Marietta defeated Upper Merion, who had previously defeated the Tigers at the Braxton Regatta in Philadelphia by three lengths. A highlight of the season occurred when both the Varsity and the Junior Varsity defeated Brooke during the Mid-American Regatta in Marietta. At the Central State Regatta in Culver, Indiana, the Varsity and the Junior Varsity both achieved a third.

After a victorious race with Brooke, J.V. crew members threw coxy Hannan Putnam into the Muskingum River.

GIRLS' TENNIS TEAM COMPILES 7-2 RECORD

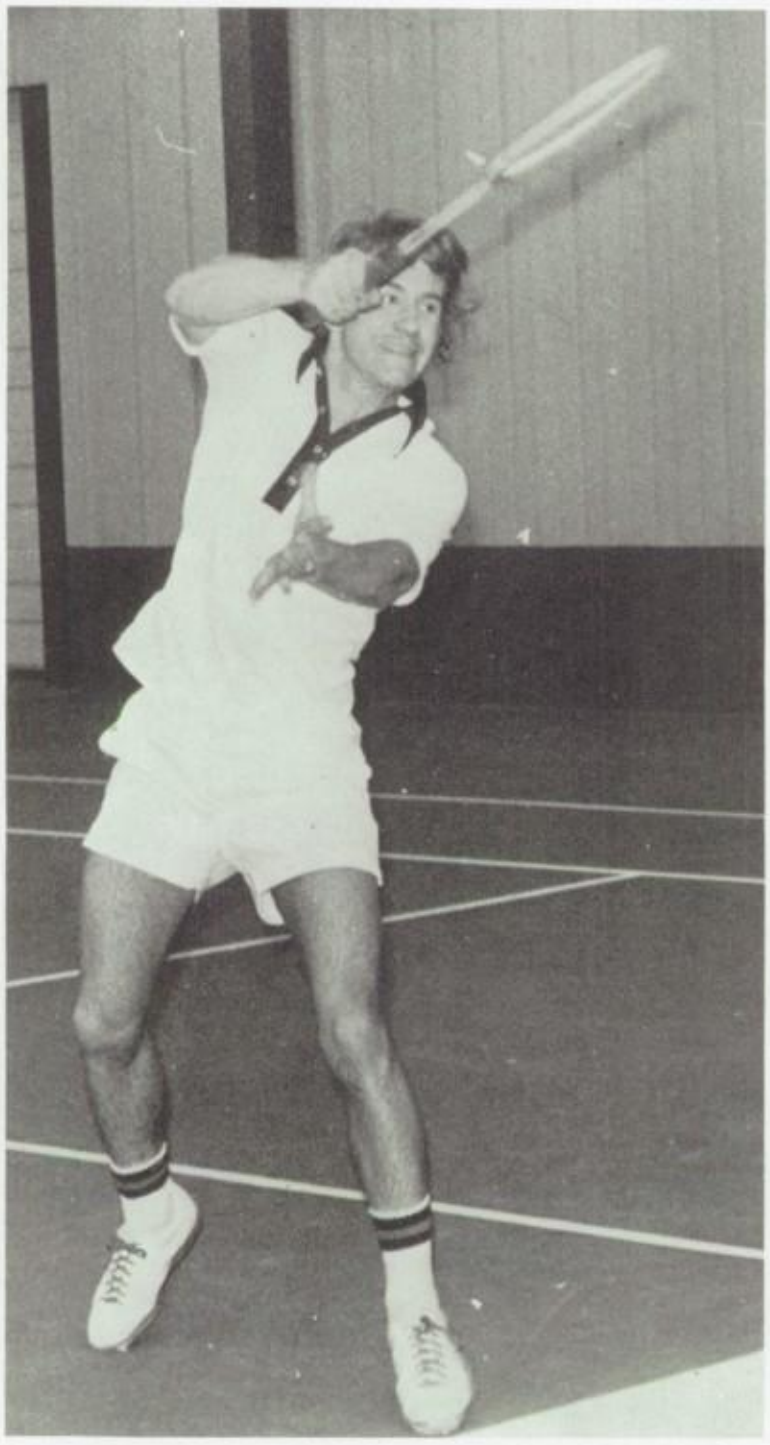
The 1975 MSHS tennis teams enjoyed a high rate of success, with the girls' team ending with a 7-2 season, and the boys' team finishing with a 5-7 record. The girls' team faltered only twice, both times against Parkersburg, a Mid-Ohio Valley Championship team. While the girls' team enjoyed a profitable season, coach Jane Eisner stated that most girls felt that the competition was not great, and would rather have played in the fall, when other COL teams participated. With 4 new members on the squad, in addition to a new coach, the boys' team started slowly, but ended the season with a reasonable 5-7 record. With no senior members, the boys' team hoped to improve even more next year. All in all, both teams experienced a good season, and hoped for continued improvement in the coming seasons.



Jim Bondurant worked as the manager of Marietta Tennis Center when not playing for the Boys' Tennis squad.

J.V.'S ACHIEVE 16-4 SEASON

The overall Varsity record was twelve wins and sixteen losses. John Visser and Jim Etter were the team's outstanding hitters; Visser had the most hits overall and Etter had the highest batting average — .302. John was also leading pitcher with a record of 4-1 in addition to his work as a reliever.

The Junior Varsity had a generally successful year and up until their last several games had a good chance of capturing the C.O.L. title. But errors in two league games forced them to settle for second; they completed the league play with six wins, four losses. The seasons overall record was sixteen wins, four losses.

Catcher RICH HASKINS (foreground) got some key hits for the Tiger Varsity.

(bottom right) Next year's captain, BOB STOKES, played flawlessly at first base and hit a healthy .314.

During the season COACH JORDAN had several mound conferences with MARK CHEESEMAN and DAVE BUZZARD.

ONE COMPETES, ONE PERFORMS

After meeting defeat in their season opener against Belpre, the Volleyball team rallied to defeat DeSales Heights and even their record 1-1. However, the team had little to cheer about the remainder of the season as a five-game losing streak drowned all hopes for winning the title in the newly formed Three Rivers Athletic Conference. The varsity team ended the season with a 4-8 record, one win better than the Junior Varsity's 3-3 record.

Working merely as a group and not as a competitive team, the Gymnastics Club perfected their talents on the parallel bars, side horse, and balance beam. In addition, the group attended a gymnastics workshop at Parkersburg High to gain pointers on competitive gymnastics and to discuss techniques and routines. Being rather proud of their talents, club members performed in a trampoline exhibition at a local gas station, a feat that brought them both publicity and financial aid.

JV's CAPTURE COL

MIKE WEST shoots over a Newark defender for two of his fourteen points.

Sixth man, ED WILLIAMS, provided a scoring punch during the season.

Junior Varsity basketball rose to its highest peak in some ten years registering a 16-2 record. Though losing their first game to Cambridge, the Junior Varsity Tigers went on to claim eleven victories before bowing to C.O.L. foe Newark. The Jayvees regained their confidence with five consecutive victories, three of them in the C.O.L. Under the leadership of Coach Ed Paxton, the team finished with an impressive 11-1 record in the C.O.L.

Varsity basketball suffered its worst season in three years, compiling a 5-14 record and a 2-8 in the C.O.L. The Tigers started the season on a bright note by defeating Cambridge, but then lost their next five games, four in the C.O.L. The streak ended when the Tigers defeated C.O.L. foe Upper Arlington and rival Parkersburg South. After winning over Parkersburg the varsity dropped the season finale to Zanesville. Tournament competition brought the same sad results as the Tigers scored an unbelievably low 30 points in losing to Chillicothe.

TIGERS SWIM 146 MILES

Although compiling an unimpressive 7-18 record, the swim team practiced rigorously. Each member praticed at least 92 hours and swam over 146 miles. More serious members practiced an additional two days a week from 6:30 to 7:30 a.m.

Since co-educational swim teams are rather recent innovations, the nine female members experienced some problems at away meets. Often they had to dress in closets, rest rooms, and athletic directors' offices because girls' locker rooms were non-existent. On one occasion they had to shower in the boys' locker room (with suits on).

DURING CHRISTMAS WEEK

Christmas Week 1974 contained activities for faculty and students alike. Monday after school, GAA hosted the annual Christmas Faculty Tea. On Tuesday, Student Council sponsored "Slave Day," where many students "sold" for prices ranging from 75¢ to $5.50. Slave Day's slogan, "Buy 'em Tuesday and Work 'em Wednesday," attracted a large number of bidders. Wednesday, the slaves carried books, lunch trays, sang songs in the cafeteria, and did just about anything else their "owners" asked. The Christmas Assembly on Friday witnessed the language clubs, Olympian Council, French Club, German Club, and Spanish National Honor Society, singing Christmas carols in their individual languages. The assembly also saw Marietta's answer to the "Follies Bergere," "The Tigerettes." An appropriate conclusion to Christmas Week, the pep assembly, buoyed the fighting spirit of the student body.

The Tigerettes lifted emotions in the Christmas assembly.

Many 1974 grads returned to the hallowed halls of MSHS for College Day.

JEFF HOWE surveys his putting situation.

For the first time in several years, Tiger golfers competed in the fall instead of the spring. After dropping their first two matches, the team rallied to defeat Chillicothe and Upper Arlington and conclude the season with an 8-7 record. The win over Upper Arlington was especially sweet since it marked the first time Tiger golfers had defeated the Golden Bears. Another high point came in the win over Chillicothe. Playing eighteen holes, PETE WENTIS, JEFF HOWE, BUTCH THEIS, and KEN MARUCCI set a school record with their combined low of 304. However, the high point of the season was the team's first place finish in the sectional, an accomplishment that qualified them for district competition.

Mr. Buxton led the Concert Band in the Variety Band Show.

BAND SHOW

Under the direction of Mr. Grover Buxton and Mr. John Knox, the Variety Band Show presented both popular and classical music. Junior high majorettes twirled to the sounds of "Bad, Bad Leroy Brown," performed by the Junior High Band. With the aid of some Concert Band members, the Junior High Band played their version of "The Three Little Pigs." The Senior High Concert Band accompanied dancers of the Betsy Mills Ballet Workshop on "Music To Watch Girls By." Denise Ritter performed a solo on the clarinet, playing the classical piece, "Concertina." John Kitchens then soloed on the marimba, playing "Ode To a Picket Fence." Following that, the percussion section of the Concert Band played "Tea for Two," as arranged by John Sands. Next, a snare drum trio, composed of Priss Webb, Nancy Greenlees, and John Sands played an old band favorite, "Haskell's Rascals." To wrap up she evening's performance, the Concert Band played a medley of songs from "Raison," a recent broadway musical.

The seven member trombone section played "Trombonanza."

The percussion section performed "Tea for Two," which utilized every percussion instrument.

The Betsy Mills Ballet Workshop performed "Music to Watch Girls By," as choreographed by Ann Lorman.

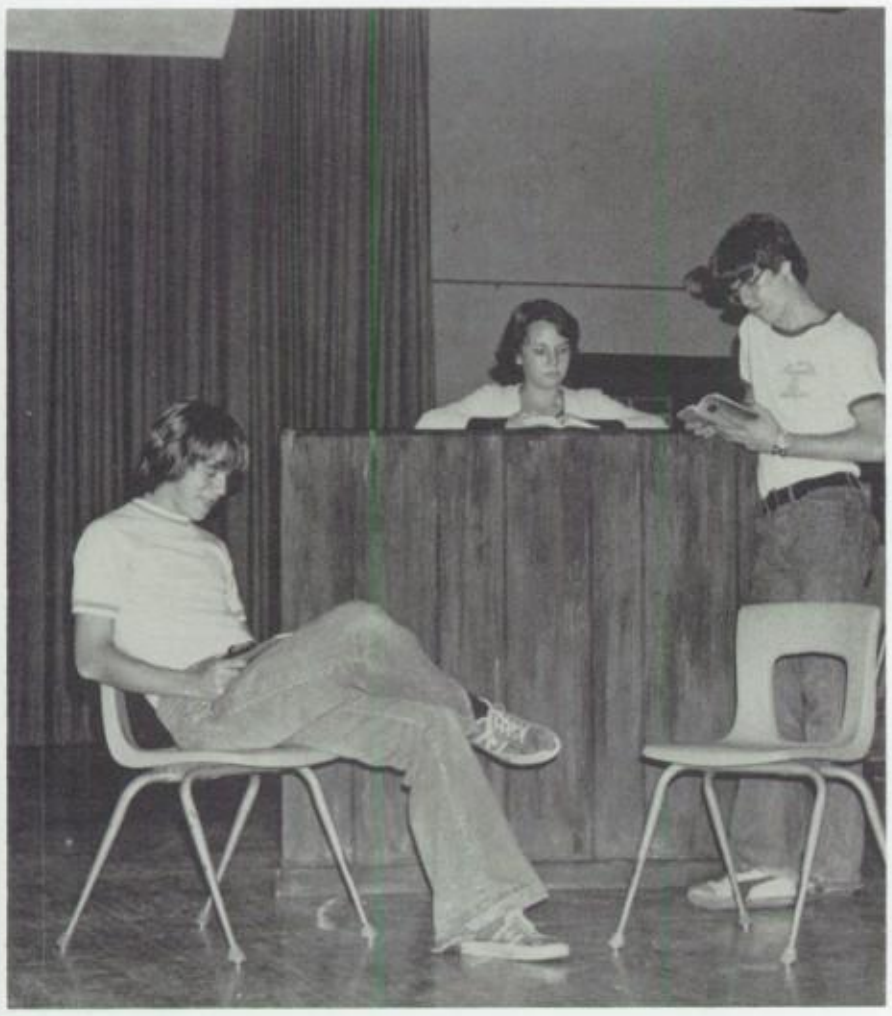
"Destry Rides Again," the 1975 All-school play, involved more than 300 students in many capacities. Mr. Tom Miller, advisor for the play, said that he chose the play because of its large cast and opportunities for student involvement. The story centers around a small Western town named Bottleneck. A crooked saloon owner and a mayor with a shady past control the town. As the play opens, the town sheriff mysteriously disappears. The mayor, anxious to find a replacement, appoints Washington Demsdale, the town drunk. Wash vows to clean up Bottleneck, with the help of his friend Tom Destry, the son of a famous lawman. Wash sends for Destry, but when he arrives, the townspeople are horrified because he doesn't carry a gun. Destry soon learns that the saloon owner and his fiancee, Frenchy, the local singer, gain farmers' land in crooked poker games. Vowing to clean up Bottleneck without violence, Destry sets a trap to find the murderer of the last sheriff. Meanwhile, Frenchy has fallen in love with Destry. When one of the town bad guys is arrested for murder, the saloon owner kills Wash while helping the killer escape. Destry, with the aid of Frenchy, finally triumphs over evil, and Bottleneck lives happily ever after.

Carl Ralston, Amy Cayton, amd Mark Cooper listened as Dan Wallace explained the space project.

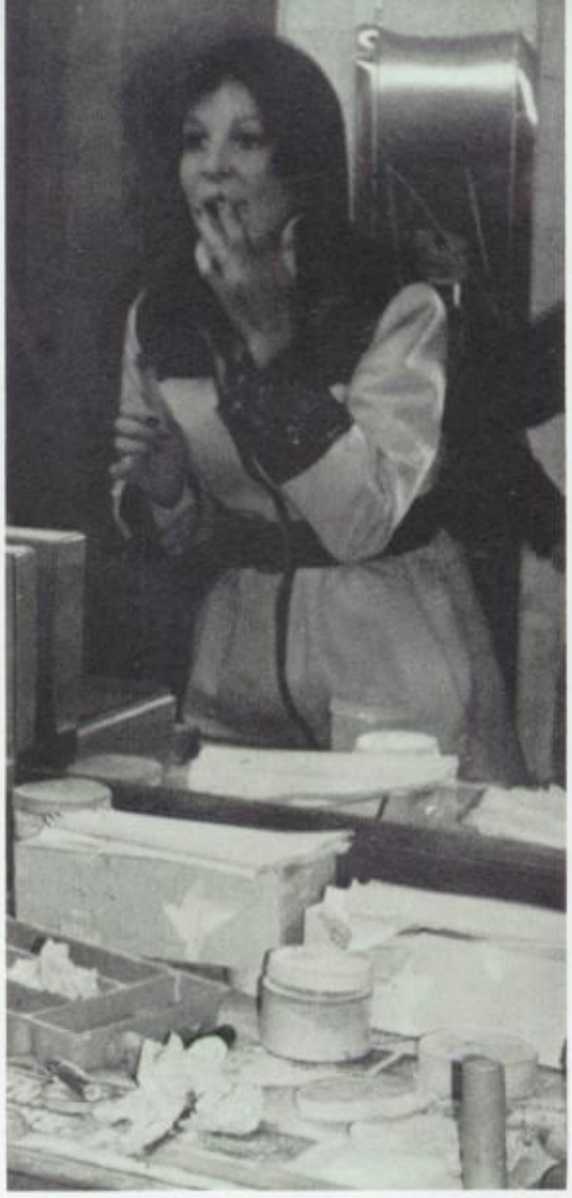
Mr. Miller, Sue English, Dan Sowle, and Greg O'Brien rehearsed in the auditorium.

More than 160 Seniors participated in "Take Me To Your President," a political parady presented November 15 and 16 in the Auditorium. Mr. Tom Miller headed the annual production, assisted by Stage Manager Missy Metcalf and Business Manager Dennis Allen.

The story revolved around a British citizen, A-1, who strove for a solution to world peace. A-1 created an international crisis when he accidentally entered a top-secret British rocket, blasted off, and landed on an Indian Reservation in the Southwestern U.S. Claiming to be from Mars, he demanded a meeting between the United States, England, and the USSR. In the end, the USSR discovered that A-1 was really from England, tried to assassinate him, but shot the Prime Minister of Great Britain instead. Meanwhile, A-1 returned home safely.



Jeff Howe, Eileen Forrester, and Kevin Moynihan studied last-minute details.



Colleen Cook puts on some last minute touches to her make-up.

Laura Ansley, Colleen Cook, Connie Smith, Wes Nida, Zane Kesselring, and Jena Lane listened to dress rehearsal comments.

"APRIL SHOWERS" PRESENTS "AFTER THE RAIN"

Honoring the Senior Class of 1975, the Junior Class sponsored "April Showers." In keeping with the theme, the committee chose the band "After the Rain." Under the blue and yellow crepe paper decorations in Sutton Gym, last year's royalty, Teri Zide and Dan Sowle, crowned Susan Nida and Pat McKitrick. Other candidates were Shelly Zide, Kim Rankin, Sherry Cochran, Betsy Fredericks, Kathy Barker, John Johnson, Mark Feisler, Mark Schwendeman, Bruce Miracle, and Jay Simmons.

"After the Rain" provided musical entertainment.

Some three hundred forty people danced amid paper umbrellas and water cans which decorated the gym.

SPRING SPORTS SHOW INVOLVES 150 GIRLS

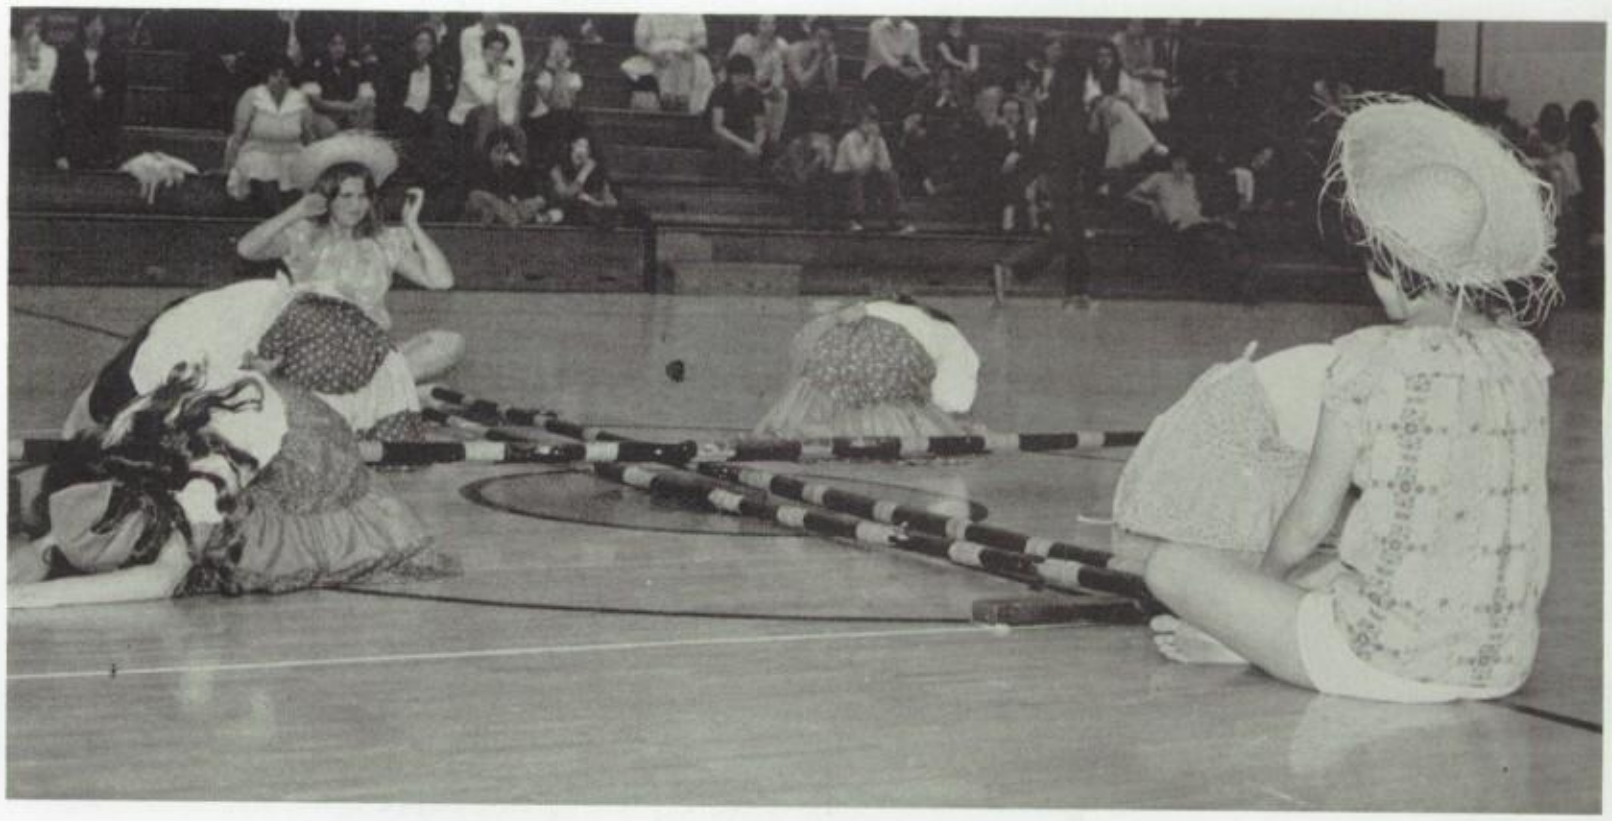
Miss Bickford's physical education classes captured most competitions.



Pole dancing, an old gym favorite, remained a crowd-pleaser in the annual spring sports show.

The 1975 Girls' Sports Show, held on May 15, involved all girls' physical education classes and the GAA. Chosen as Queen and Princess respectively, Rhonda Newhart and Ann Cribbs presided over the evening's events, featuring competition between GAA members and members of the physical education classes. Following the theme "Fantasy Land," students competed in such varied activities as volleyball, cageball, badminton, ping pong, aerial darts, scooter relays, tumbling, deck tennis, pole dancing, and square dancing. GAA captured the volleyball and aerial darts competitions, while the physical education classes won all other contests. In addition to these competitions, Cheryl White performed a gymnastic routine, and Kathy Berry presented a short ballet dance. Teresa Connely on the balance beam, Sandy Hayhurst and Sherry Eichorn on the scaler, and Kathy Berry on the parallel bars performed another gymnastic routine. All in all, the sports show, planned and organized by Miss Bickford, offered a program designed to interest both the student body and the general public.

404 SENIORS DEPART FROM MSHS

After 12 long years, 404 members of the Class of 1975 became alumni of Marietta Senior High School on June 1. Over 2000 people attended the graduation ceremonies, held in Sutton gymnasium. All awards and scholarships were announced at the Senior Recognition assembly Friday morning. Named as class co-valedictorians, Denise Ritter and Debra Batson joined with class salutatorian Carrie Mozena as the top scholars in the class of 1975. Miss Debbie Lauer, 1974 winner, presented Denise Ritter with the Marie Adamson Senior Scholastic Award. Sports awards included the Harry Buchert Award, Dave Casto; the Kelly Mike Award, Chris McDaniel; the "M" Award (outstanding athlete), Bill Rinesmith; the Dick Siley Award, Wes Nida; the Roger Miller Award, Kirk Schultheis; and the Wittekind-Van Frayen Award, Dave Lowe. Most Valuable Players in the following sports were: football, Chris McDaniel; baseball, Perry Steed; track, Greg Wagner; volleyball, Brenda Morris; golf, Pete Wentis; wrestling, Bill Rinesmith; girls' basketball, Nancy Greenlees and Jerri Estes; and girls' tennis, Carrie Mozena. Mr. Karl Hiebel awarded the American Cyanimid Award to Debra Batson, the Baush and Lomb Award to Dave Casto, and the Borg-Warner Award to Mike Moening. The following students received these scholarships. Nancy Greenlees, the Walter Schweikert Scholarship; Vicki Smith, the Practical Nurses Scholarship; and Carol Boggess, the Practical Nurses Scholarship. The most prestigious of all scholarships at MSHS, the Lt. Richard M. Christy Memorial Scholarship, went to Greg O'Brien.

CLUBS

Although the Girls' Athletic Association functioned mainly as a club, its members devoted a full period a day to its activities and received academic credit for their participation. The sole requirement for membership was an interest in organized sports — and a willingness to undergo an unusual initiation. Held in the fall, initiation required inductees to spend all the school day wearing bathrobe, slippers, hair rollers and, often, a gob of cold cream on the nose.

Other activities included formal initiation, playdays, a picnic, and a weekend trip to the Smokey Mountains. Earlier magazine and candy sales made the activities financially possible. The spring sports show, "Fantasyland", involved all the girls in P.E. classes, plus GAA, in an exhibition of gymnastics, team sports, and relay races.

REWARD ACHIEVEMENT

New members inducted into Quill and Scroll were (Row 1) CARRIE MOZENA, MARTIN PRINCE, BARB BOND. (Row 2) SARAH HILL, SHEA McGREW, BABETTE BAIN, KIM BROEDEL. (Row 3) MARK COOPER, MARK BOYD, CARL RALSTON.

National Honor Society placed emphasis on all-round achievement in scholastic and extracurricular activities. In order to be tapped, a Junior had to have a grade average of 3.25 and a Senior an average of 3.00 as well as teacher recommendations based on character, leadership, and service. As a service to the whole school, the club sponsored a tutoring program for those with problems in their school work. The group also sold the engraved name cards to Seniors for graduation announcements.

The purpose of Spanish National Honor Society was to expose outstanding Spanish students to the different cultures and customs of Spanish-speaking countries. A spring picnic was the occasion for the induction of nineteen new members into the club.

To become a member of Quill and Scroll, an honorary society in journalism, an individual had to be at least a junior in the upper third of his class, and be recommended by one of the two advisors of the school publications.

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFERS DIVERSITY

Projects that benefited the student body were the primary undertakings of the Student Council.

One of their most visible and popular efforts was the snack bar. Council took advantage of students' insatiable appetites for calories and cavities and made a healthy profit.

EFFE day provided students with an escape from everyday classes to enroll in half-hour mini-courses. Taught by students, teachers, and interested people of the community, the topics ranged from "Exorcism" to "Hairstyling." In the gym lobby, ping-pong games and a student rock group provided extra entertainment. Since seventy-nine per cent of the student body attended, another EFFE day seemed a possibility for the spring.

Sagging mid-semester spirits rose when the U.S. Navy band "Country Current" played an hour of bluegrass music before a deafeningly enthusiastic audience. Selections included country music ("I Was Raised on Country Sunshine" and "Cripple Creek") as well as the more pop-oriented "Let Me Be There" and "Sundown." Student Council President Susan Snediker received a gift of their record album which included many of these songs.

Just a week later, the Thanksgiving assembly merited an equally receptive response, as did the Christmas assembly.

LANGUAGE CLUBS GROW

Language clubs gained a new popularity this year as members participated in field trips, parties, and fund-raising projects.

Under the new direction of MISS BRIODY, the French Club soon became one of the most active school organizations. It involved many because a speaking knowledge of the language wasn't necessary for membership — just an interest in group projects. An early fall weekend camping trip was among French Club's first undertakings. Later in the year, they hosted A.F.S. and other language clubs at their Halloween Party. Members celebrated Christmas, first with caroling and later with a party. Profits from a bake sale and the all French newspaper, "L'aube Etincellante," provided necessary funding.

The German Club, too, was larger this year. One of their most enjoyable activities was a visit to Columbus' German Village. Their money-raising bake sale, featuring hot chocolate, made the trip financially possible. German Club celebrated Christmas by performing in the assembly and with a party at Mr. Whiting's house.

Olympian Council, advised by MRS. HART, took part in the assembly as well, singing several carols in Latin. They also held a Christmas party for members. After Christmas, preparations for a fund-raising project and an end-of-the-year party began.

ORCHESTRA COMPETES

As community engagements and a competition filled their schedules, members of the orchestra worked hard to perfect their performances. In the early fall, hoping to spark interest in the Marietta string program, the group made their annual tour of the grade schools. Christmastime gave the players an opportunity to present seasonal music before an appreciative audience, the local organization of retired teachers. A solo and ensemble contest followed, where the string quintet and soloist Brett Benton (bass) received ratings of "superior." Next for some members was the regional youth symphony at Muskingham college. As an extra project, Mr. Yoho and the orchestra tentatively planned a spring trip to Cleveland to see that city's orchestra in concert. BONNIE CRAGO, PAM VENHAM, TAMMIE EDDY, and ATHENA CARDER played violin; SARAH HILL and LINDA PHILLIPS, viola; JOSH GAMMON and BOB GODDARD, cello; BRETT BENTON, bass.

Eileen Forrester, Becky Hale and Marsha Winn (back) warm up before rehearsal.

Even early in the fall, the choir began preparations for their first performance, their annual Christmas concert. At this concert, the fourteen-voice choir, under Mr. Schwepe's direction, presented lesser known as well as traditional seasonal music.

In February, the group competed in the district solo and ensemble contest where several members sang solos in addition to the ensemble's number, "Ave Maria"; this performance received a rating of "excellent" in the most difficult category. The whole choir joined all Marietta city school choirs for the winter concert, also in February. A May pops concert finished the year.

BAND-O-RAMA . . .

Wirt County won a Class A trophy for this routine.

As host band, Marietta High led the parade through the downtown area.

Sponsored by the Marietta Tourist and Convention Bureau and the Marietta Noon Lions Club, the annual Band-O-Rama ranks among the top festivals in Ohio. Coming from as far away as Pennsylvania, twenty-six bands offer color and precision to the festival's ten thousand spectators.

At the conclusion of the field maneuvers, twenty-three bands awaited the judges' decisions.

As a part of their Oriental show, Columbus West formed a Tiki House.

. . . A COMMUNITY EVENT

BAND SWINGS THROUGH AN ACTIVE SEASON

Always one of the most popular school activities, the band had a typically full year.

The first major event they planned for was the Band-O-Rama. An estimated ten thousand spectators lined downtown streets to watch as the MSHS marching band led the parade.

Under the direction of Mr. Knox and Mr. Schwepe, the band practiced during lunch periods to perfect the military-like precision of the field maneuvers exhibited at half-time and pre-game shows. Perserverance and effort paid off, and the routines received an enthusiastic response from football game audiences.

On November 17, the band took a field trip to Columbus to see the Ohio State marching band in action. Some members also attended the Ohio Wesleyan Music Festival and a sight-reading competition.

Midwinter saw participation in the annual "Variety Band Show," another community favorite. The spring concert rounded out the season.

Lunch periods meant practices for the band.

AFS STRIVES FOR RECOGNITION

Although the student organization of the American Field Service is traditionally less active than the adult club, which actually sponsors exchange students, members strived to make the club more well-known.

To raise money, they held two bake sales — one on St. Valentine's Day and another in celebration of April Fool's Day. On April 25, the group presented one feature of the Spirit Week assembly. The theme of their presentation was "Australia." In cooperation with the language clubs, A.F.S. planned the International Potluck Dinner. A special speaker seemed a possibility for an after-dinner talk. CARRIE MOZENA was president. KEVIN MOYNIHAN was vice-president; CARRIE ALBRIGHT, secretary-treasurer.

One of A.F.S.'s main duties was to keep in close communication with the foreign exchange students, who this year were Adie Howard of Australia and Gitti Biedermann of Austria (Gitti left Marietta in late fall). MSHS students Carrie Albright and Susan Snediker had visited Argentina and Germany, respectively, the previous summer on the same program. Doug Stewart and Cathy Wesel were chosen as possible field service candidates for summer of '75.

This past year has been the best and busiest in my life. I have come to love Marietta and its people so much that it is difficult to think of going back to Melbourne and city life. I have made many wonderful friends, but one of the hardest things about being an AFS student is that you have to "spread yourself thin" because there are so many people with whom you'd like to be. Through this experience, I've come to know both myself and others better. Before I arrived I was scared that no one would be interested in my country because I spoke English, and American and Australian cultures are similar. But I found the opposite situation. People could understand me and were eager to learn about this continent far away. I even surprised myself with my knowledge of Australia! I've been really fortunate to see quite a bit of America; but there is so much more, that I know I have to come back. Thank you to everyone who has made this year such a fantastic experience and good luck in the future.

I've always loved to travel so I was really excited when I found I was going to spend the summer as an exchange student in Argentina. I was a little worried about how I would adjust to living with people I've never met and who were in a completely different country. But after just a couple of days, I felt like I had always been there. It was so relaxed. Argentines are very open and Argentine life is generally much slower-paced. We even had a three-hour siesta every day. It was a fantastic experience, and I think more people should try to become involved in AFS, either by applying to be a host family or an exchange student.

Carrie Albright (above) summered in Argentina.

A German family hosted Susan Snediker (below).

I was really surprised when I found I was being sent to Germany as an AFS student since I had been studying French in school. However, I felt that the language barrier would not be that tough to penetrate, especially since everyone in my new family, except my one-year-old brother Christof, spoke some English. I found many patient and helpful people as I struggled to communicate in German. At first my family qried to make me feel welcome and therefore I felt like a guest. But when my mother jokingly chased both my sister and me with a wooden spoon for eating most of the cake dough, I knew I had become a true member of the family. Before I left, I felt truly German, having become accustomed to German life. I had thought of Germany as being not quite as developed as the U.S., but I found I was wrong. We could learn a lot from the Germans and although Germany is now my home away from home, spending the summer away from the U.S. made me have an even stronger feeling for my home country.

DEBATE CLUB RENEWED

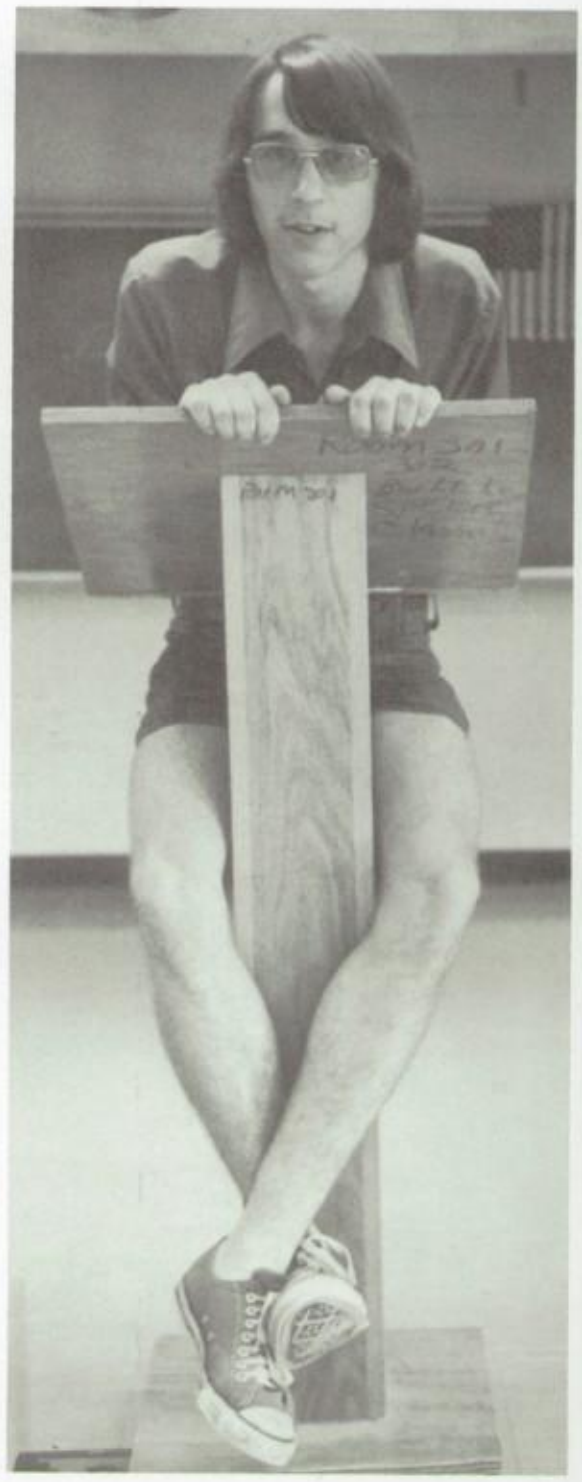
By listening to the opposition's speech, KIM BROEDEL and MARTIN PRINCE planned their strategy.

The newly-formed Debate Club was one of few self-supporting school organizations. So, because they had plans to attend out-of-town functions, members held several bake sales to raise gas money. In addition, the city of Marietta paid the group for preparing the "Santa's Sleigh" float in the Christmas parade. After two trips to language arts seminars the club won four out of six debates and placed second in their class in tournaments at Valley Forge High School in Cleveland.



Although JIM LYONS seems to be some rare breed of orangutan, he was actually the first negative speaker for the debate team.

THESPIANS FORTY ONE INDUCT

Thespians, two-year and newly inducted members, were (Row 1) Kim Broedel, Holly Crago, Robin Flannery, Beth Stacy, Amy Cayton. (Row 2) Carl Ralston, Kim Knellinger, Dan Wallace, Jerry Biehl, Barb Metcalf, Denise Ritter, Susan Fisher, Gail Libock, Carrie Albright, Jena Lane. (Row 3) Kevin Drennen, Laura Cooper, Omie Kucik, Sandy Hayhurst. (Row 4) Sarah Hoy, Kathy Wesel, Lisa Daniels, Kim Jones, Eileen Forrester, Connie Smith, Mary Weber, Shelly Zide, Martin Prince, Jeff Owens, Jennifer Otto, Emily Gilde. (Row 5) Joann Russel, Coleen Cook, Lennie Holland, Bill Schilling, Mike Neader, Josh Gammon. (Row 6) Sue English, Tony Weber, Robin Rutter, Beth Sands.

Mr. Miller, shown here directing the all-school play, was advisor.

In order to join Thespians, the school drama society, a student must have completed at least one hundred hours of work in school plays and local theater. The members of the club perform in their own productions which are generally more serious works than school-sponsored programs.

"The Life and Death of Almost Everybody," a morality play, was presented in January. In the spring, after the Senior class and all-school plays, the group initiated students who had gained the necessary amount of hours, at a spring picnic. Forty-one students joined the club.

TEEN TEACHERS PLAY DUAL ROLE

Juniors and seniors taking the Teen Teacher program found themselves in the unusual position of playing the roles of both student and teacher during the course of the day.

While they attended their regular classes at MHS in the morning, they devoted afternoons to their duties as teacher aides at Marietta grade schools, the junior high and the Friendship School. There, responsibilities ranged from instructing the basics of reading to first graders, to preparing bulletin board displays for corridors. The Teen Teachers met as a group once a week to discuss teaching principles and classroom procedure. At the end of the year, they wrote term papers on their plans in the field of education.

The purpose of Key Club, like the purpose of its adult counterpart, Kiwanis Club, was to plan community service projects which included a Saturday tree planting to beautify city streets. Key Club heard speakers at their meetings several times monthly; also, to retain communications between the two groups, some selected members attended monthly Kiwanis meetings.

Although not a school-sponsored activity, Y-Teens involved many co-eds in planning activities and projects to benefit both school and community. Highlighting these projects were the Christmas Dance, featuring "Micky Blizzard," and the sale of balloons to raise money for the Washington County Heart Fund.

MEMBERS GAIN JOB TRAINING

Any interested student could take his choice of business courses which combine regular schoolwork with vocational instruction.

The Intensive Office Education classes concentrated mainly on developing secretarial skills, while seniors in the Cooperative Office Education program also used these talents in off-campus jobs. Students enrolled in these programs comprised the membership of the five Office Education Association clubs which all met as the Marietta chapter of O.E.A. Each of the clubs had its own officers and fund-raising activities. Among these projects were the O.E.A.-C.O.E. "mums-for-homecoming" sale and the Junior-O.E.A.-run bookstore. Members of all of the clubs participated in the regional O.E.A. contests.

Advised by Mr. Fordham and Mr. Vukovic, the Marietta chapter of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America also offered students active work experience in combination with job training.

Students with the foresight of possible career plans helped to make the four "future" clubs successful.

Future Farmers of America is a nation-wide organization for those with an interest in some area of agriculture. F.F.A.'s activities included their annual citrus fruit sale and a parent-son banquet. Officers were President, BRUCE THEOBALD; Vice-President, RICK DUNBARGER; Secretary, DAVE SIMPSON; Treasurer, RICHARD HUDDLESTON. MR. SAWYER was advisor.

Future Homemakers of America offered its fifteen members a chance to develop their skills as homemakers. They used these talents in two of their main activities — preparing and serving at the faculty Christmas breakfast, and baking heart-shaped cookies for sale on Valentine's Day. Advisor was Miss Rapp.

Professionals in the medical field were the featured speakers at Future Nurses of America (F.N.A.) meetings. Often films and demonstrations augmented these informative lectures. In the spring of the year, as a service project, members prepared Easter favors for Marietta Memorial Hospital patients. F.N.A. officers were President, Marianne Beck; Vice-President, Debbie Haas; Secretary-Treasurer, Darlene Burke; Program Chairman, Kim Mattfeld; Ways and Means Committee Chairman, Debbie Wright. Mrs. Beebe was this year's advisor.

Those aspiring to join Future Teachers of America had to undergo an amusing and embarrassing initiation which involved dressing as a teacher. "De rigeur" of the day were elastic stockings and flattering mid-calf skirts. Fund-raising for the group took the form of an early-fall stationery sale. At Christmas members performed carols at a Marietta nursing home. Mrs. Cain was advisor, and the officers were President, Betsy Fredericks; Vice-President, Dana Bagwell; Secretary, Barb Ross; and Treasurer, Susan Nida.

THE ORIGINAL

Volume 0 No. 00 Marietta High School Marietta, Ohio 45750 September 3, 1975

Financial Setbacks Overcome

Before the publication of the ORIGINAL could begin in the fall, some serious financial setbacks had to be taken care of; there was virtually no money with which to start production. Debts incurred from past years contributed to the problem, as did rising printing and paper costs.

The staff met to discuss the problem and to consider alternatives to printing a newspaper similar to past issues. One of the suggested alternatives was to publish a tabloid-sized paper, but they rejected this idea and instead the ORIGINAL staff launched an intensive search for financial backers. The campaign was successful, and production began as usual.

The ORIGINAL, distributed biweekly and selling for fifteen cents, contained news about M.S.H.S.'s administrators, faculty, students and activities. The "Roving Tiger" examined students' views on issues of current interest. School leaders were the subjects of "Senior Personalities" interviews. The entire back page featured sports news.

The ORIGINAL staff was also responsible for the "Tiger Times" which appeared every other Saturday in the Marietta Daily TIMES. Articles on this page informed the community about activities at both the junior and senior highs.

The newspaper staff's activities were many and varied. To improve their skills as journalists, Barb Bond, Mark Cooper, Carrie Mozena and Martin Prince attended a summer seminar in Athens. Later in the year, all the staff held their own two-week workshop to sharpen their writing talents and to constructively criticize their work. Another project was a visit to the Marietta TIMES plant. And on two occasions, they participated in athletics against their mighty rivals from the ORIAN staff.

The ORIGINAL'S editor was Eileen Forrester; associate editor, Martin Prince; feature editor, Carrie Mozena; sports editor, Mark Cooper; Heading exchange were Mark Bauer and Brian Moore. Ray Doak, Chuck Hall, and Chuck Wagner were photographers. Reporters were Babette Bain, Chris Bawn, Emily Gilde, Joe Helm, Adie Howard, Tom Hushion, Jena Lane, Jim Luce, Barbarba Metcalf, Rhonda Nelson, Susan Snediker, and Vernon Unger. Barb Bond and Shea McGrew were co-editors of the "Tigers Times;" Mr. LeClair advised.

************

SPORTS FLASH!: A 6-6 tie was the final score of the fourth annual "Turkey Bowl," the Thanksgiving day football match between the ORIGINAL and ORIAN staffs. Less traditional was the "George Washington's Birthday Classic," a basketball game, which favored the yearbook team.

Roving Tiger Strikes Again . . .

The ubiquitous "Roving Tiger" asked the newspaper staff, "What did you enjoy most about working for the ORIGINAL?" Here are their answers:

Eileen Forrester, senior: "I enjoyed most working with people who are willing to be of service to their school, to be creative, to be vitally interested in the things that go on around them."

Vernon Unger, sophomore: "The freedom to write the way you want within certain guidelines."

BOND

UNGER

Martin Prince, junior: "Deadlines!!"

Barb Bond, junior: "Working with Mr. LeClair and the staff was a rewarding experience."

Emily Gilde, junior: "I'm naturally nosy and interviewing was a great opportunity to find out about people."

Rhonda Nelson, senior: "No comment."

FALL DATE SET FOR "ORIAN"

Something different was in store for MSHS students as a greatly diminished yearbook staff prepared for a fall publication. The reason for the later distribution was to be able to include the often-ignored supplement, which includes spring activities, in the hard-back ORIAN.

The ORIAN had some financial difficulty — namely a deficit of two thousand dollars, most of which was met by selling ads to local businesses and individual patrons. Selling the yearbook at a higher price helped to provide some of the funding. ORIAN also received some money from snack bar profits.

Fourteen staff members were responsible for a total of 180 pages. Editor this year was LAURA COOPER, assisted by SARAH HOY. SANDY STARR organized the seniors section; TERI BUSH, juniors; KATHY EMERICK, sophomores; KIM BROEDEL, CHERYL BOLEY, and ALLYN IMMEL covered sports; CATHY WESEL, faculty; MARK BOYD prepared the activities pages. SARAH HILL can be blamed for the organizations' section and DEBBI RIDDLE was responsible for the ads. ALICE DYE and RAY DOAK were photographers. MRS. CLINE acted as advisor.

Although most of the students are familiar with the clanging sound of the senior bell, few know of its short history. Donated by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hill to the class of 1968, the bell was originally used in the senior homecoming float. Then the following year seniors began using it at games and pep assemblies to enliven student spirit.

Since the Junior Class sponsored the talent show, the logical theme was "Talents and Tricks of '76." Among the "tricks" was Bill Schilling, who performed a dual role as master of ceremonies and magician. As MC, Bill introduced such attractions as Betsy Fredericks' "Highland Fling"; Annette Nicholson's baton twirling act of "YO YO"; and John Kitchen's "Tubular Bells" on the piano. The show also provided some laughs when Junior Geils (Junior Harmon) led Flash Pekach, Lurch Theiss, and Spider Weber in "Giving it all up for you, Babe"; and when Boy Scouts Sarah Hoy, Cathy Wesel and Susan Nida sang "Be Prepared." In the finale, the entire cast joined Tony Weber in singing "It's not where you start, it's where you finish."

Preparations for the Jr.-Sr. Prom began early in the school year with the appointments of Tony Weber and Denise Maxon as co-chairmen. Then individual committees began taking care of details: finding a band; choosing a theme; ordering decorations and tickets; and preparing food. All of the hard work materialized on April 26, 1975, when the Junior Class presented "April Showers" in Sutton gymnasium.

Since one never knows when a flood may hit, sophomores strongly believed they should know how to react in case of an emergency. Therefore, they began a series of flood drills both as a precautionary measure and a means of upsetting classroom activities. For some odd reason Mr. Hiebel's classes were hit the hardest.

Actually the procedure required very simple instructions: stand on a chair, roll up your pant legs, and hold your nose.

By sponsoring the 1974 Homecoming dance, sophomores successfully added the final touches to spirit week. The semiformal dance, held at the Betsy Mills, lasted from 8:30 to 12 o'clock with Harvest Moon as the theme. "Drucella", a local band, provided the music while couples danced amidst the autumn arrangements.

Grand Valley edged out Marietta in the Junior Varsity lightweight, for one of the Pioneer's few losses.

On Saturday, May 3, 1975, 38 crews from 10 colleges met on the Muskingum River for the annual Mid-American Regatta. Held in Marietta for the past eleven years, the Regatta provided competitions in varsity heavyweight and lightweight, j.v. heavyweight and lightweight, freshman, and women's divisions. Overall, Marietta compiled 25 points, winning the varsity heavyweight, j.v. heavyweight, and freshman titles, and placing second to Purdue in the varsity lightweight division. Coming in a distant second, Purdue compiled 16 points, by winning several minor races in addition to the women's final. By winning the majority of the divisions, Marietta captured the overall championship for the ninth consecutive year.

MARIETTA CAPTURES REGATTA

MARIETTA CELEBRATES ITS 187th BIRTHDAY

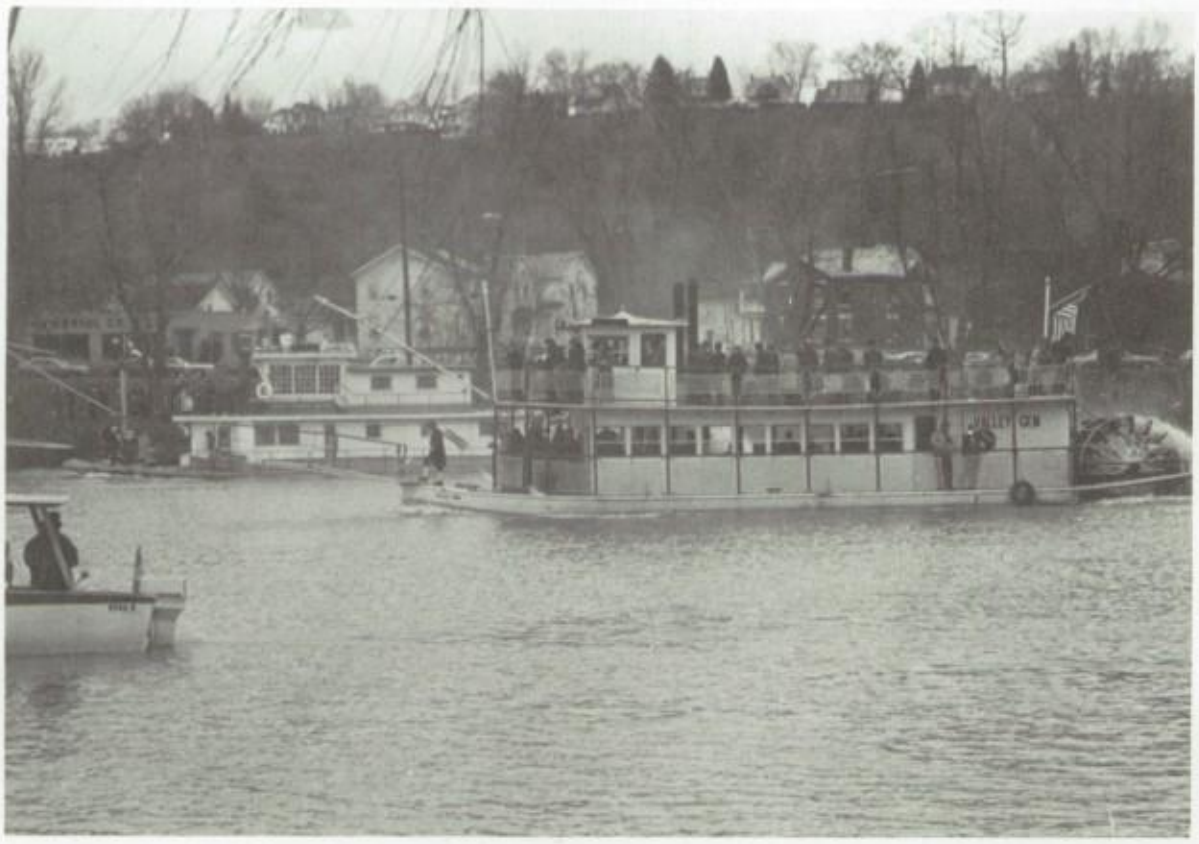
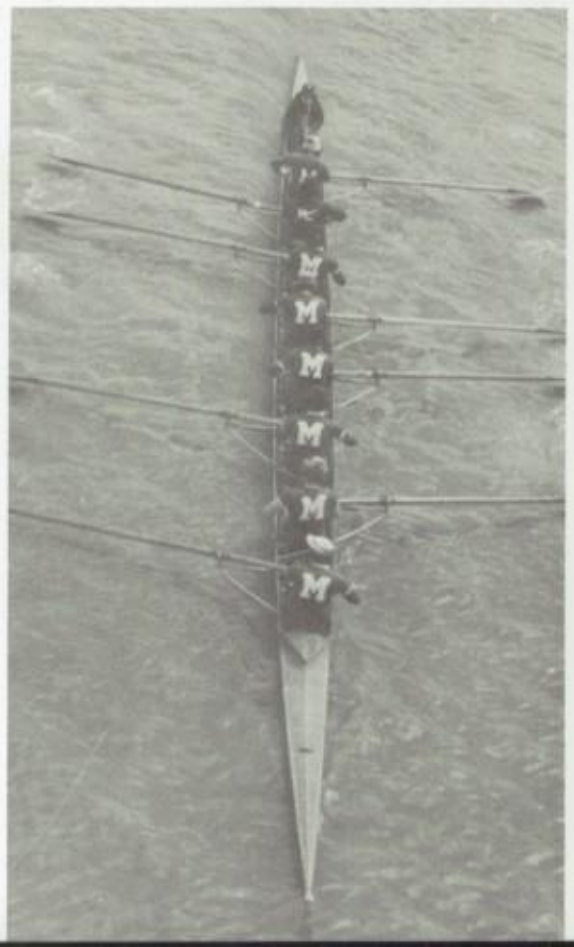
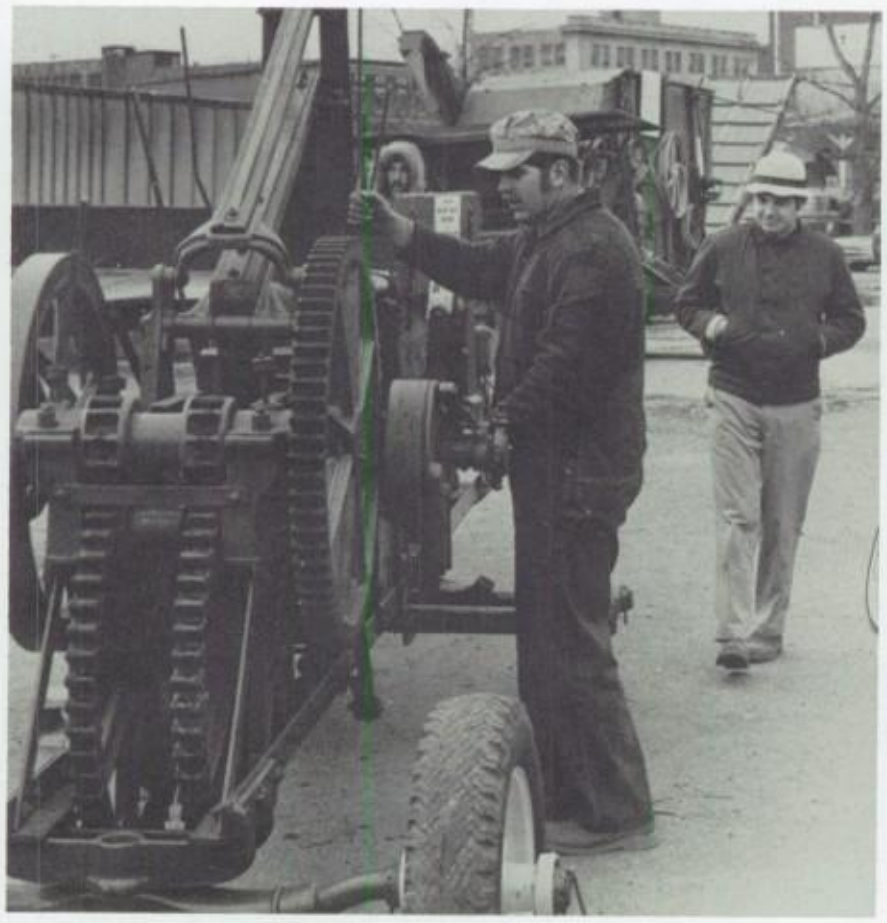
Marching bands, singers, flags, antique displays, temperatures ranging in the mid-30's, and bright sunlight combined with thousands of local citizens and visitors to celebrate Marietta's 187th birthday. The weekend celebrations began with a religious service in the First Congregational Church, followed by a downtown parade, and cutting of the enormous birthday cake in Muskingum Park. Later on spectators viewed a crew race between Marietta College and Wayne State and a steamboat race between the CLAIRE E and the VALLEY GEM. Also, Miss Ohio World, Jackie Urbanek, appeared at the River Museum while men dressed as early pioneers demonstrated muzzleloading near the Oak Grove School. At the end of the weekend, music lovers listened to "Eden on the River," composed by Genevieve Greene especially for Marietta.



Captain James Fitch piloted the CLAIRE E to victory over the VALLEY GEM. (right) The Marietta College Crew overpowered Wayne State University.



Unicyclists, bicyclists, and tricyclists from Mt. Vernon rode both modern and antique cycles in the downtown parade.



Randy Shrider, member of the Mid-Ohio Valley Steam and Antique Power Club, prepared this stationary hay bailer for display.

Spectators braved cold winds to view the crew race.

SPRING BRINGS NEW SIGHTS

Sophomores won the rock-painting contest during the final spirit week of 1975.

All three classes and the teachers entered a cart in the grocery cart race held during spirit week.

Spring brought the feeling of impending doom to MSHS. Seniors feared those final days when they were sure something terrible would happen and graduation would be cancelled. Juniors fretted over lack of interest in the prom and worried about their quickly-approaching senior year. Sophomores wondered whether or not they could survive two more years at MSHS. However, spring also carried in fresh ideas, outdoor activities and spring sports. With warmer weather at hand, open windows brought fresh air and, alas, the resultant daydreams. Frisbees became a common sight around the school grounds. Crew, baseball, tennis, and track re-entered the circle of sports. All in all, spring brought a change to Marietta Senior High School.
